

Vomit all the Spanish words you know from this unit or outside of this unit to discuss the following topics:

- Personality characteristics that would make you a good candidate for the cultural exchange program
- Words you/your family/your friends use to describe you
- Your hobbies and interests that will help you to appreciate new countries (i.e. Spain, Latin America) – explain your interculturality
- What you can do to help others
- Connectors
- Qualities that you have of an understanding person
- What you know about Spanish-speaking young people

*The brainstorm on this page will help you prepare to answer the interview questions that I gave you ahead of time.

The brainstorm on this page will help you reply to the email portion of the test.

- Health and fitness
- Getting along with others
- Stressful moments (give an example of a time when you responded to stress in the past)
- Experience in other programs/with foreigners
- What an international exchange might be like
- Question words
- Express gratitude and excitement
