

The Day You Were Born

---

A parent interview project

Telling a good story is all about dramatizing the background information, for which we use the imperfect tense. Interview a parent, guardian, or other family member about the day you were born, or another memorable day (really, don't let the title hold you back—be creative). English permitted 😊.

Date:

Time of day:

Place:

Age person being interviewed was on that day:

What the weather was like:

Emotions they were experiencing:

What had been going on that day at the same time (background situation):

Added description (scenery, physical characteristics, physical conditions):

Nombre _____

Key Events: