

In order to retake any portions of the test, you must have completed the assignments with black dots. If you'd like to retake the listening portion, you must also have completed the assignment with the pink dot. Purple dot is for reading, green is for writing, and orange is for speaking.

If you have more than 4 late assignments, you may not receive higher than a B+ on any portion of a retake. If you have multiple late assignments that were due on the same date, it just counts as 1 late assignment (that's what the blue lines are for).

If you'd like to retake any portion of the test, you can go to S-101 during APP on Tuesday, October 23rd, Wednesday, October 24th or Thursday, October 25th. Not only do you need to have your assignments completed, but you need to report what you've done specifically to do better on that portion of the test. The speaking retake will be exactly the same, but the other retakes will be different (hopefully easier, but you still need to prepare).
